

Please improve the captioning in any TV programs since there are lots of garbled statements or omitance of words when there is a long pause in between. It would also be helpful if you could type every single word they say on TV, not leaving anything out whenever possible for captioning.

Since these are public airwaves sold or given freely all Americans regardless of disability should be able to derive benefit from them despite the additional costs necessary to reach deaf people.